5	Respect Authority	As a team, we will submit to the authority of our leaders and to the field missionaries and legal authorities. (Hebrews 13: 17) Any wrong decisions we make on our own could ultimately destroy or cause difficulty in the lives of the very people we are there to help and cause our leader to become accountable for our wrong doing and disobedience. (Titus 3: 1-2)
6	Security/Protection	Psalms 32:7 "You will protect me from trouble" John 17:12 "I protect them and kept them safe that are in my name" <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Have a travel buddy.. 2. Never leave the group without letting the team leader know. 3. Do not leave valuables (i.e. passport, money, jewelry) in your room. 4. Do a passport inventory of all team members 5. Keep a copy of your passport on you at all times. 6. Keep credit card cancellation numbers in case of an emergency. 7. Establish an emergency plan in case of separation from the group. 8. Use extreme caution when using calling card numbers over the phone. 9. Give a contact person and phone number to family members. 10. Room checks will be done daily.
7	Time/Flexibility	I Peter 2:17, "Show proper respect to everyone: love the brotherhood of believers, fear God, honor the King (authorities) " italics added I Thessalonians 4: 12, "Live so that your daily life may win the respect of others." <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To show respect for one another and avoid causing anyone involved any anxiety, we are to be punctual to all events, be ready and willing to do whatever it takes to accomplish our task. 2. The team will be flexible about any unexpected changes in schedule or events. I will adhere to and respect the above covenant set by my team leader and fellow team members:
